

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FOR PARENTS:

Dear Parents,

Thank you for submitting permission for the Google accounts.

Next week all school are closing for the TT fortnight so I am including here some websites for you. I will continue to use Google classroom as usual this week. If you have any learning you would like to share on the school's facebook page, please email to Mrs Robinson, but if you are happy for your child to share a photo, or piece of work in the classroom, please ask your child to add it to the stream with a little information about what Thinking and Learning has been involved. If their device does not permit this, please email to me and I will add it. Enjoy the break and I look forward to speaking with you all soon.

1.The One World Centre are holding a competition: <https://www.oneworldcentreiom.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/04/Its-Not-Fair-Entry-Form.pdf> There will be a further link on Tholty Classroom.

2.P4C - 2 good 2 bad A copy is on the Tholty Classroom.

is a simple evaluation activity that can be applied to lots of different situations. It's a tool for helping people to gather their thoughts and think with others about what they like and don't like. This is great preparation for getting into philosophical enquiry. Engagement tends to be particularly high when the stimulus is the participants' own perceptions of their own experiences. The learning can have direct consequences for action.

3. A huge array of practical 'guiding' activities (applies to both boys and girls): https://www.girlguiding.org.uk/what-we-do/adventures-at-home/?utm_source=facebook&utm_medium=paid-social&utm_campaign=aahfacebooklookalike&utm_content=lookalikefbengagers

Daily Reading

Please keep a record of your daily reading and the books you have read during this time. List the title, author, type of book (autobiography, fantasy, science fiction, information etc), and your star rating. Are you noticing any patterns to the types of books you like? Or particular authors? Has anything changed since we were last in class altogether? Why do you think changes have/haven't happened? Are they a good thing?

Spellings

was not - wasn't, were not - weren't, he will - he'll, she will - she'll, it is - it's, it will - it'll, it has - it's, we are - we're, we would - we'd CHALLENGE 1: Type out your spellings and try to use at least 4 different fonts, and 4 different colours.

CHALLENGE 2: Using your best handwriting, see if you can write your spellings out forwards and backwards.

Writing task

Please use <https://www.pobble365.com> this week.

After completing it is your job to then think about, list and explain which thinking moves you used!

See the Thinking Moves Icons above to help you.

Miss Dainton has prepared further resources. Please look in the Tholty Classroom for these resources. In these lessons you will need to think back to learning we did about the compass points in class, respond to the challenges, and test your answers.

Topic

Of course this week's news is already on the classroom. Great for P4C and Thinking Talks.

Science - BREAD! What science is involved in the making of bread? <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zrnkwtu>

RE - Use this link to find out about Ramadan. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zpdtbkb/articles/zjc2bdm>

Thinking Moves Challenge - 'Formulate' Home talk will be emailed to your parents.

MANX - How are you getting on? I've had some homework emailed to me from eager Year 4 learners. Well done!
