Thinking
Moves

This week's focus is celebrations

Let us celebrate the occasion with wine and sweet words.

Plautus – Roman playwright

Instead of hate,
celebrate.

Caring thinking

- What does saying 'Thank you' mean?

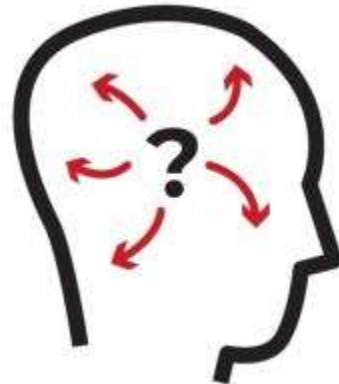

Collaborative thinking

- If you were able to choose a new day of celebration for the whole world to celebrate together, what would it be called?

Creative thinking

- What connects all the different festivals and celebrations around the world, religious and otherwise?

Thinking Moves

Critical thinking

- Are all celebrations meant to be joyful events?

Think AHEAD

Are you excited about Christmas?

Think BACK

It's almost a year since last Christmas – what sticks in your mind about this year?

CONNECT

What sights, sounds, smells and tastes do you associate with different celebrations?

DIVIDE

How many differences can you find between your birthday and Christmas?

LISTEN/LOOK

How do the celebrations that are important to you make you feel?

ZOOM (in/out)

ZOOM in on one thing in 2020 you would change

ZOOM out on 2021 – what are your hopes?

The story of Hannukah – Sesame Street

An entertaining look at the story of Hannukah, celebrated from December 10th – 18th in 2020.

Talking Points

- Why do you think the first thing Judah and his people did was to clean up the temple?
- The oil lamp they lit lasted for 8 days and that is why Hannukah lasts for 8 days. Would you like other celebrations, like your birthday, to last that long?
- Which is your favourite celebration of the year?

Activity

- Like all festivals and celebrations, food at Hannukah is important. Have a go at making some Hannukah treats with an adult.
- Here's a video that shows you how:

Coming Home – Waitrose

The Waitrose 2016 Christmas TV advertisement, featuring one of the world's most recognisable birds.

Talking Points

- What evidence can you find in the video that suggests it's Christmas?
- The robin's journey seemed long and difficult. Do you think it was worth it?
- The robin is one symbol of Christmas – what others are there?
- Are there symbols of all religious festivals?

Activity

- Celebrate National Robin Day, on December 21st

New Year's Eve Fireworks Display, London 2020 – BBC

A huge fireworks display, originally founded by the Mayor of London, to celebrate the beginning of the New Year.

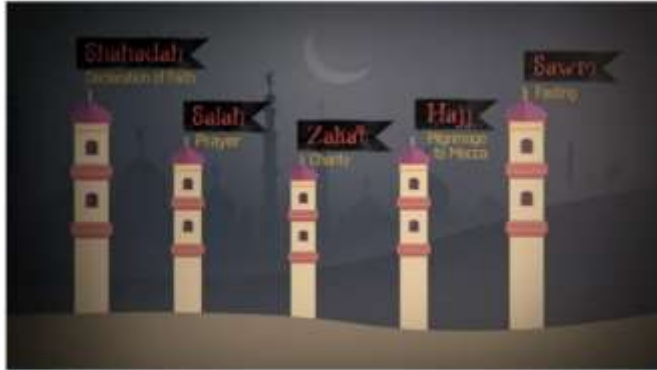

Talking Points

- What do you think is the point of this fireworks display?
- The event in 2019/2020 cost £2.3m. Was it worth it?
- Why do you think fireworks are so popular for celebrations?
- What are we celebrating on New Year's Eve?
- Are resolutions easier to keep at New Year?

Activity

- Try and find the strangest custom for celebrating New Year's Eve (or New Year's Day).
